Bachelor’s profile in Embryology

Degree: Biology. Length: 4 years.

The profile is chosen after the shared biological core.

Required departmental courses: introduction to embryology, developmental biology, comparative embryology, methods.

The practical uses the teaching collection of early stages.

Fourth-year coursework is done in one of the departmental laboratories.

The summer placement lasts four weeks and ends with a short report.

This file is a sample. Replace it with the approved programme before the site is published.